2.12 Unique Learner Number

It is an OFQUAL requirement that Awarding Bodies must capture the Unique Learner Number (ULN) for all learners who have claimed. Where a learner has a ULN, you should enter their number in the ULN field of the entry form. For learners who do not have a ULN, a claim will still be accepted if you leave this field blank but FUTURE will not be able to send these achievements to the Personal Learning Record.

2.13 What level of Functional Skills will be required?

There is no specific entry requirement. Learners will need to have Minimum Core Skills in literacy, numeracy & IT skills in order to successfully complete as they will need to achieve the minimum core requirement of personal skills in these areas.

Initial assessment of minimum core of personal skills in English, Mathematics and ICT must be carried out for all learners commencing the qualification and any associated needs should be recorded in appropriate learning plans.

2.14 What physical requirements will the programme demand of the learner, such as, is this programme suitable for visually impaired learners?

Learners are not restricted on the basis of physical capacities.

Learners should be guided on the requirements of employment in the sector, and on whether the qualification will contribute to the achievement of their career goals. Learners must be able to meet the required assessment criteria for this qualification.

2.15 Language

FUTURE qualifications and assessment materials will be provided through the medium of English. The language used within this qualification is subject to scrutiny to ensure that it is plain, clear, free from bias and appropriate to the level. Further information on language requirements can be found in the document 'Position statement on Welsh and Irish' on the FUTURE website www.futurequals.com

2.16 Learners with proven Special Consideration

The FUTURE procedures can be found in the Guidance on Reasonable Adjustments and Special Consideration document which is available for download from the FUTURE website at: www.futurequals.com.

2.17 Guidance notes on delivery

There are detailed requirements for the delivery and assessment of these qualifications specified in this document. Therefore delivery and assessment must be undertaken in line with this guidance, regardless of the mode of delivery chosen.

The programme may be applied flexibly, in accordance with learners' needs and local circumstances. Facilitators/assessors are encouraged to repeat sessions that learners have not fully grasped or introduce additional sessions to ensure understanding and competence. It is recommended that where possible the theoretical sessions are interspersed with practical aspects.

Section Two

Delivery via Blended learning

Centres may choose to deliver this qualification via blended learning. 'Blended learning' means the combination of delivery by face-to-face methods and learner self-study.

When delivering blended learning, personnel competency requirements must be met and learner support systems must be provided in line with the Centre Guidance contained in this document. Such requirements include the allocation of a mentor to actively support each learner, the usage of qualified and experienced teachers for delivery and assessment and the initial assessment of learners prior to commencement of the course. Learners should be given access to an adequately resourced centre where they will be given this support and where they can complete.

It is important to note that delivery entirely via distance learning is not appropriate, due to these requirements.

If you are delivering these courses via blended learning, you may be using learning and assessment materials produced by a training provider. Any training materials used for assessment purposes must either be endorsed by FUTURE beforehand or approved by the FUTURE External Quality Assurer prior to their usage.

Likewise, plans of assessment and assignment tasks must be approved to FUTURE prior to the first assessment being undertaken by the learners. This approval process will be carried out by the External Quality Assurer either electronically (or using other forms of correspondence), or at an initial moderation visit.

Materials for approval can be sent directly to the Qualifications Manager. A standard FUTURE observation form is available for use by centres and can be downloaded from the FUTURE website at: www.futurequals.com.

2.18 Grading

Assessment is competent / not competent. There is no grading.

2.19 Determining and Reporting of Results

The FUTURE procedures on registration and certification, assessment and internal quality control are available in the following document:

- Centre Guidance Pack – Guidance for the delivery and assessment of qualifications awarded by Future (Awards and Qualifications) Ltd

This document can be found on the FUTURE website: www.futurequals.com

2.20 Opportunities for progression

QCF units may appear in other larger qualifications on the QCF, you can check this by visiting The Register of Regulated Qualifications at <http://register.ofqual.gov.uk>, use the URN to search for the unit and click on linked unit to view the units other qualifications.

2.21 Pre-course procedures

FUTURE qualifications are available to anyone who is capable of reaching the required standards. They have been developed free from any barriers that restrict access or progression thereby promoting equal opportunities.

There are no formal requirements for entry to these qualifications.

2.22 Interview procedure

All centre staff involved in the assessment or delivery of these qualifications should understand the requirements of the qualification and match them to the needs and capabilities of individual learners before entering them as learners for one of these qualifications.

2.23 Initial Assessment

It is important that centres carry out some form of initial assessment that identifies what competence and knowledge a learner already has and any proven and documented needs which should be taken into account. This will help in planning the learning programme. It is important at the initial assessment stage to ensure that learners commence a programme at the appropriate level.

Initial assessment of minimum core of personal skills in English, Mathematics and ICT must be carried out for all learners commencing the qualification. This should be recorded so that centres can identify any associated needs and record this in appropriate plans.

2.24 Learner Support

Support for literacy, numeracy and language

Centres should assess each learner's potential and make a professional judgement about his/her ability to successfully complete the programme of study and achieve the qualification.

This assessment will need to take account of:

- The support available to the learner within the centre during his/her programme of study
- Any specific support that might be necessary to allow the learner to access the assessment for the qualification
- Diagnoses of the requirements of the learner, making use of specialist advice from external sources, as appropriate.

During the recruitment process centres should identify any learner requirements and how they may affect successful completion of the particular programme. Programme teams should refer closely to the qualification specifications when discussing possible options for learners. They should advise learners on the appropriateness of the qualification to the learner and identify more suitable qualifications if necessary.

Reasonable adjustments to assessment and special considerations to accommodate individual learner needs are allowed by FUTURE procedures and must be notified to FUTURE in advance of the assessment. See the FUTURE document "Guidance on Reasonable adjustments and Special Consideration" which can be downloaded at www.futurequals.com.

2.25 Individual learning plans

All learners must have an individual learning plan that records their needs, prior learning and progress on the learning programme. The learning plan provides the basis for action planning to enable the learner to work towards their qualification. It should identify any learning and professional needs and a plan to address these needs. Learning plans should be negotiated and agreed with individual learners and recorded in a format that details:

- Learner details
- Existing relevant qualifications e.g. literacy and numeracy qualifications, subject specialist qualifications
- Details of any evidence offered for prior learning
- Results of initial assessments in literacy and numeracy

Section Two

- Details of those supporting the learner e.g. tutor, mentor, subject specialist
- Any additional support required by the learner
- Action planning
- Feedback and monitoring
- Record of progress.

In addition, individual learning plans should cover the personal development of minimum core requirements for skills in English, Mathematics and ICT and address any needs identified.

2.26 Mentor support

It is good practice for centres to appoint a mentor to support learners throughout the programme. The mentor must understand the requirements of the programme and must be a qualified and experienced teacher. Mentors should be subject specific and provide learners with specific guidance on teaching their specialist subject. Mentors should have some training in mentoring skills.

2.27 Subject specialist support

It is good practice for learners to have access to subject specialist resources at the appropriate level and other teachers and mentors who should be able to offer specialist support.

2.28 Learning resources

Centres will need to ensure that learners have access to all appropriate resources to support their learning on the programme. Resources are likely to include:

- Appropriate general and subject specific texts
- ICT resources
- A suitably equipped venue and resources
- Other resources to support identified needs of learners.

2.29 Tutorial support

Tutorial support should be provided to learners whether on classroom based, work-based or distance learning programmes. Learners should be provided with details of how to contact their tutor and arrange tutorials as appropriate.

2.30 Legal Considerations

Learners and centers should be aware of regulations affecting those who deal with children, young people and vulnerable adults.

Parnassus: Centre Management Information System

3.1 Registration & Certification - Introduction to Parnassus

Parnassus is our online Centre Management Information System, which all our approved centres are required to use as part of the administration processes.

In Parnassus you will be able to:

- Register your learners
- Review the progress of your learners
- Register grade results for certification

Only appointed persons authorised by the Centre Coordinator will be granted access to Parnassus. The named person(s) will be given a username and password in order to gain access to Parnassus and they will receive full training and support from a member of the administration team at FUTURE.

For further information on Parnassus, a Centre Guidance pack, including a User Guide for Parnassus, is available for download at www.futurequals.com.

3.2 Learner Registration

The Centre must register learners onto Parnassus prior to the start date of the event and must ensure all details are complete and correct to avoid possible amendment charges.

Centres must provide the following learner information:

- First Name
- Surname
- Date of Birth
- Ethnic Origin
- Disability
- Unique Learner Number (ULN)
- Special Considerations

Upon registration with FUTURE, each Learner will be issued with a FUTURE Learner Identification Number. This number will record the complete Learner journey from qualification through to certification. All subsequent qualifications will be linked to the Learner number with FUTURE systems.

The Approved Centre will receive email confirmation of the FUTURE Identification Learner Number for each Learner registered and also a confirmation of registration on to the requested qualification.

3.3 Certification

FUTURE will ensure all certificates are sent to print and dispatched within 5 working days after the grade results have been submitted into Parnassus. The Approved Centre will be notified immediately if there is any reason for a delay.

Section Three

FUTURE delivers all certificates to the Approved Centre's examinations office using the Royal Mail Recorded Delivery service, where a signature is required upon receipt. In the unlikely event that certificates have been lost during delivery, the centre must inform FUTURE as soon as they are aware.

3.4 Replacement Certificates

In the event that Replacement Certificates are required, the Approved Centre must complete and return the Replacement Certificate form which can be downloaded from the FUTURE website at: www.futurequals.com

Any associated fees are detailed in the FUTURE Qualification and Price List which can also be found on the FUTURE website.

3.5 Unit Certification

With multiple unit qualifications, the learner may ask for unit Certification. However all assessment components must be passed within the unit and pass the centre quality assurance process before the unit certificate will be released.

Assessment Overview

4.1 Planning for evidence

Assessors must take responsibility for assessment planning with learners. This will involve agreeing a number of issues with learners including:

- finding the best source of evidence to use for particular units
- finding the best way of assessing the learner
- confirming the best times, dates and places for the assessments to take place.

Assessors must make a note of their assessment planning and regularly give feedback to learners

4.2 Assessing the evidence

It is not necessary for learners to meet all the criteria every time they carry out an activity but it is necessary that all learners produce their own evidence to meet all assessment criteria. They must consistently provide enough evidence for assessors to believe that the learner is competent in their working environment.

They must:

- plan with the learners
- assess learner performance, knowledge and understanding
- look at the evidence
- question and give feedback to the learner working towards these qualifications.

They should also be satisfied that the learner has demonstrated competence when meeting the assessment criteria. All criteria must be completed before the assessor can sign the unit off as complete.

4.3 Assessment Methods

Where appropriate, qualifications can be assessed using evidence from the workplace i.e. observable performance, physical products of work (such as reports, plans, correspondence etc), witness testimony, discussion and questioning etc. Evidence can take many forms including:

Observation

Observation at work is a common method used in assessment within the QCF. Observation can be organised in a variety of ways:

- By continuously working alongside the assessor/witness
- By arranging to work alongside the assessor at specific times
- By the assessor planning to visit when particular activities are planned
- By arranging with the assessor for particular activities to take place before a visit.

Observation or other types of evidence, e.g. personal statements, records of question and answers or witness testimonies may be used. It is also possible to use tape recordings, video or other technologies to record performance.

Section Four

Work products

Work products refer to any work the learner has undertaken themselves that shows a level of understanding or skill. This work may have been done as part of a job or, where permissible, it may have come from a simulation that is as close to a real working environment (RWE) as possible.

Product evidence may be used a great deal. The exact nature of this evidence will depend on the nature of the learner's work. Examples of product evidence include letters, memos, lists, spread-sheets, presentations and reports. Certificates showing achievement are also considered to be product evidence.

Work products must be wholly or partially the result of work the learner has undertaken. To ensure authenticity, the products may need to be countersigned by a person in a position of responsibility who is able to vouch that the products are the learner's unaided work.

Simulation

For this qualification simulation is not allowed unless specified in the unit criteria.

Throughout the QCF the emphasis is on the learner being able to carry out real work activities so assessment will normally be carried out in the workplace itself. The QCF standards will indicate any units where simulation may be used.

Simulation is any structured exercise involving a specific task that reproduces real-life situations. If simulation is used, care must be taken to ensure that the conditions in which the learner is assessed in mirror the work environment, i.e., that it is a realistic working environment (RWE).

Questioning

The learner will have to prove that they have the required knowledge and understanding for each unit. They will often demonstrate it through the production of evidence, though in some cases this will not be possible.

Questioning is the ideal way of proving whether or not they have the necessary knowledge and understanding. Questions may be asked in many forms such as short-answer questions, through projects, multiple-choice tests, case studies, or assignments.

There is likely to be more emphasis on questioning to prove knowledge in areas where evidence is generated through practical working activities, and where there may be no product evidence. Sometimes, the assessor will need to discuss with the learner the work they have done and record it on a question and answer form. This is known as professional discussion.

Personal and witness accounts

The assessor will not be able to observe everything a learner does. On such occasions, statements (testimonies) from other people who have observed the learner working can be useful sources of evidence for the QCF as they can describe each activity in detail. Generally, testimonies are used to support other evidence produced.

Assignments and projects

Assignments and projects are also useful ways to collect evidence. However, the learner should ensure they are not being asked for a competence that is not required by the standards.

Recognition of Prior Achievement (RPL)

RPL is a method of assessment leading to the award of credit that considers whether a learner can demonstrate that they can meet the assessment requirements for a unit through knowledge, understanding or skills they already possess and so not need to develop through a course of learning.

RPL enables recognition of achievement from a range of activities using any valid assessment methodology. Provided that the assessment requirements of a given unit or qualification have been met, the use of RPL is acceptable for accrediting a unit, units or a whole qualification. Evidence of learning must be:

- valid
- reliable.
- Safe
- Fair

Expert witness statements

An expert witness might be the learner's line manager, a colleague or a customer. The learner will need to work with the assessor to make sure that the provided witness statements are acceptable.

4.4 Evidence

All evidence should be:

- Valid.
It relates to the Learning outcomes and Assessment criteria the learner is trying to achieve and claim.
- Authentic.
The evidence, or an identified part of it (e.g. a report), was produced by the learner.
- Sufficient.
It must cover all the areas of competence being claimed for.

The learner should check carefully that their evidence meets all of the above. If they are in any doubt about whether to use a piece of evidence, the learner should ask their assessor for guidance.

Evidence may be collected through a range of sources, such as employment, voluntary work, training programmes and interests/activities that the learner performs outside of work. It can also be produced in various formats, e.g. the learner's own reports, testimonies from colleagues, supervisors or members of the public, projects, models, audio tapes, photographs, video.

4.5 SSC Assessment Strategies

The FAQ Level 2 Certificate In Trade Business Services (QCF) must be assessed according to the Sector Skills Council Assessment Principles, which can be downloaded from the Qualifications section of the FUTURE website at www.futurequals.com.

Centre Staffing

5.1 Centre Staffing

Approved centres must ensure that there are a sufficient number of people either trained or qualified to assess the number of learners they anticipate to register. They must also ensure that there are a sufficient number of people either trained or qualified to internally verify for the number of learners and assessors.

Approved centres must have verification systems and internal verifiers in place to ensure that all assessments are valid, reliable, authentic and sufficient, and also provide quality assured training for those people identified as being responsible for verification. There must be a standardisation system in place to ensure that all assessments are consistent and fair

The occupational expertise of those undertaking the roles of assessment and internal verification is one of the key factors underpinning valid, fair and reliable assessment. The integrity of assessments and verifications is of paramount importance.

Therefore, centres must ensure that those undertaking the roles of verification and assessment maintain their skills, knowledge and understanding regarding assessment and verification and the associated qualification.

Centres must also ensure that there is sufficient time to conduct effective assessment and internal verification.

5.2 Criteria for Assessors

Assessors must demonstrate that they:

- have credible expertise in their subject area relevant to the level(s)/units they are assessing or verifying.
- keep themselves up-to-date with developments in practice within their subject area;

5.6 Centre Internal Quality Assurance

Internal quality assurance is the key to ensuring that the assessment of evidence for units is of a consistent and appropriate quality. Those carrying out internal quality assurance must be occupationally knowledgeable in the area they are assuring and be qualified to make quality assurance decisions.

5.7 Facilities/Resources/Safety Considerations

Training and assessment must be able to provide a suitable teaching area/environment conducive to learners' learning i.e. well lit, well ventilated and of adequate size

Section Five

5.8 Monitoring the skills of trainers

There should be a quality assurance plan, which includes provision for monitoring the skills of trainers at least once a year. A copy of the monitoring assessment should be put in the relevant trainer's portfolio.

There should be a course evaluation procedure, based on learner feedback, covering at least:

- the ability of trainers;
- structure and content of the course;
- the equipment used;
- the training premises used.

5.9 Centre Complaints procedure

Training centres should have a complaints procedure which is given to each learner before training begins.

5.10 Syllabus

The course content is made up of the learning outcomes and assessment criteria for the units that make up the qualification. The training should include all these elements but where practicable, can be tailored to meet the needs of individuals and/or their employers.

5.11 Lesson plans

There needs to be a lesson plan for each syllabus topic, containing aims, objectives and outcomes. A combination of theory and practical tests will help the trainer assess each learner's understanding of a given topic.

5.12 Training equipment

It is important there is a sufficient range of equipment to support all elements of the training. Where appropriate, there should be procedures in place for maintaining hygiene when using equipment.

5.13 Training venue

The premises should be conducive to learning. Training centres do not need to use their own training premises; the use of hired premises or client facilities is acceptable. Training centres should ensure that all premises used are fit for purpose.

5.14 Preparation and planning

Are there adequate and sufficient training aids for the course?

Training aids should be appropriate and clearly contribute towards achievement of the stated objectives. All learners should benefit from the training aids used.

Is the classroom conducive to effective teaching and learning?

All learners require their own working area. They should be able to hear and see the trainer at all times.

There should be adequate space for theory and practical work to facilitate effective learning.

Are lesson plans of sufficient quality and detail?

If a lesson plan has no strict format, it is recommended that it includes:

- time allocated for each session;
- learning objectives (a statement to show what the learner is expected to achieve by the end of the session);
- trainer and learner activities during the session;
- teaching methods and equipment to be used;
- a method of assessing the learner's understanding.

5.15 Effective delivery

Is there an effective introduction to each topic?

The trainer should introduce each topic effectively. This will enable the learner to understand the objectives of each session.

Is the lesson plan followed?

It is important to follow the lesson plan. Every learner group has different learning needs and abilities. The trainer should be aware of this and make allowances when applying the constraints of the lesson plan.

Is the overall timetable followed?

The trainer should ensure that all training follows the specified timescales. Session times should follow the lesson plans and course syllabus. Overrunning may affect subsequent sessions and proper delivery of their content.

Is training producing a good level of interaction?

The trainer should encourage and ensure full participation and involvement of all learners in all aspects of the training. It is recommended that a single trainer teaches no more than 12 learners so each individual receives an appropriate level of support.

Does the trainer ensure that every learner achieves the stated outcomes?

Assessments should be continuous to make sure the learner has gained the relevant knowledge, skills and understanding relating to each element of the course. Only when they can demonstrate this, should they move to the next subject area. Assessment methods recorded in lesson plans may include theory tests, practical work or question and answer sessions, as appropriate.

Being occupationally competent means they are also occupationally knowledgeable. This occupational competence should be maintained annually through clearly demonstrable continuing learning and professional development.

Occupationally knowledgeable:

This means that each assessor should possess relevant knowledge and understanding, and be able to assess this in units designed to test specific knowledge and understanding, or in units where knowledge and understanding are components of competency. This occupational knowledge should be maintained annually through clearly demonstrable continuing learning and professional development.
